International Day of Living

International Day of Living Together in Peace is observed on May 16th each year. This day aims to promote peace, tolerance, inclusion, understanding, and solidarity among individuals and communities. The day serves as a reminder of the ongoing need for peaceful coexistence and mutual understanding. It is essential to strive for peace and harmony every day, fostering understanding and cooperation among young minds. Glimpses of the POSTER MAKING ACTIVITY organised for students to express their vision of peaceful coexistence.
